

Geography

Fantastic Places!

Investigating the human and physical geography of amazing places around the world, including the UK and other places such as Mount Everest, the Amazon etc.

Science

Everyday Materials and their Uses

Investigating objects and the materials they are made from; identifying everyday materials and describing their properties; comparing and grouping materials according to those properties; comparing the uses of everyday materials; and finding out how some solid objects can be changed by applying forces.

Art

Let's Sculpt

Finding out about a range of work and styles of well-known sculptors. Using a range of materials creatively to design and make a variety of sculptures in different scales and styles. .

History

Remembering!

Investigating history beyond living memory, e.g. Remembrance Day; Bonfire Night; Battle of Britain, and why it is important to remember these events and mark them yearly.

DT

Our Fabric Faces

Investigating different materials and different ways of joining them to create a collage of a face.

Computing

Talking and Sharing

Exploring various ways of conveying messages using both digital and non-digital systems. Using emails and responding to blogs. Exploring very simple onscreen simulations and linking these to their understanding of algorithms

Me and My World

KS1 Term 1A

PE

Swimming, Gym and Games.

PHSE

New Beginnings

Covering empathy, self-awareness, motivation and developing social skills.
Getting on and Falling Out
Covering managing feelings, empathy and social skills.

Say No to Bullying

Covering empathy, self-awareness, social skills.

RE

Myself

Considering 'who I am' and how my choices affect others. Being aware of why we have rules.

Maths

The Maths curriculum follows a cyclical cycle throughout the year. We follow the Abacus long term plan to ensure coverage throughout the year.
Potential cross-curricular maths: coordinates, compass directions and directions.

English

This term we will cover: stories in familiar settings; labels, lists, signs & posters; songs and repetitive poems; stories involving fantasy; information texts; and poems about animals.