

We are Unique!

Swimming, Outdoor and Adventurous Activity, and Dance

Science

Properties and Changes of Materials

Investigating everyday materials for their properties; knowing that some materials dissolve and can be recovered; separating mixtures; explaining how the properties of materials lend them to particular uses; demonstrating reversible changes and explaining that some changes result in the formation of new materials. Possible visits: Interserve and DIO to research materials used and their properties.

English

This term we will cover: Genre fiction; Argument and Debate; Classic narrative and oral poetry; Drama (Shakespeare); Reports and journalistic writing; and Poetic Style.

UKS2 Term 2A

History

Falkland Island History: The 1982 Conflict. Researching the events leading up to the conflict; what happened during the 74 days and the legacy today. Possible visits: Dockyard Museum, Goose Green, Memorials, Battle Field Tour, invite speakers to visit.

PHSE

Dreams and Goals

Covering goals to success; challenges; over coming obstacles and aspirations.

Healthy Me

Covering emotional and physical health.

DT

Automata Animals

Designing and constructing mechanisms where by animals move using cams and wheels.

Art

Wild Life

Drawing birds and feathers; creating prints based on feathers; and sculpting birds in a variety of medium such as clay and paper.

Geography

Food for Thought

Looking at the distribution of natural resources (food), locally and globally; investigating land use in the Falkland Islands; and researching where our food comes from. Potential Visits: CRS, NAAFI, Stanley Growers

Computing

Information Models

- Create a spreadsheet model to solve a real-life problem.
- Identify and change variables within spreadsheet models; describe the effect
- Present answers appropriately, including graphs. use to support conclusions
- Check model for accuracy
- Explain why the model is effective; justify choices

Christianity

Tracing the story of the beginning of the Christian religion, considering the significant people, events and ideas.

Visitors: people in the community

Maths

The Maths curriculum follows a cyclical cycle throughout the year. We follow the Abacus long term plan to ensure coverage throughout the year.