

Teaching British Values Policy

How We Promote British Values at Mount Pleasant Primary School

The DfE have recently reinforced the need 'to create and enforce a clear and rigorous expectation on all schools to promote the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs.'

The Government set out its definition of British values in the 2011 Prevent Strategy, and these values have been reiterated by the Prime Minister.

At Mount Pleasant Primary School, we take every curriculum opportunity to promote British Values and these are supported by British Forces South Atlantic Islands with attendance at Remembrance Services and special events on and off Mount Pleasant Complex.

These values are reinforced regularly and in the following ways:

Democracy

We are a Rights Respecting school. Each year the children decide upon their class names and class rules, and the rights and responsibilities associated with these. Children have many opportunities for their voices to be heard. We have a school council and the pupils are all regularly consulted on their lessons, the environment and anything they want to change.

The Rule of Law

The importance of laws, whether they are those that govern the class, the school or the country, are consistently reinforced throughout regular school days, as well as when dealing with behaviour and through school assemblies. Pupils are taught the value and reasons behind laws, that they govern and protect us, the responsibilities that these involve and the consequences when laws are broken.

Visits from authorities such as the Police, Fire Service, Ambulance staff help to reinforce this message.

Individual Liberty

Within school, pupils are actively encouraged to make choices, knowing that they are in a safe and supportive environment. As a school, we educate and provide boundaries for young pupils to make choices safely, through the provision of a safe environment and empowering education. Pupils are encouraged to know, understand and exercise their rights and personal freedoms and are advised how to exercise these safely, for example throughour E-Safety and PHSE lessons. Whether it is through choices of challenge, or how they record, of participation in our numerous extra-curricular clubs, pupils are given the freedom to make choices.

Mutual Respect

We treat each other with respect and talk to each other in a respectful way adult to adult, child to child, adult to child and child to adult. Assemblies and class discussions regularly cover 'Respect'. When a child does something well, their achievement is celebrated.

Tolerance of Those of Different Faiths and Beliefs

This is achieved through enhancing pupils' understanding of their place in a culturally diverse society and by giving them opportunities to experience such diversity. Most children take part in the Nativity plays. We use assemblies, PHSE and RE to learn about the similarities and differences between religions. We are learning Spanish in our school to develop our cultural understanding of our country neighbours.
